Ford World Women's Curling Championship
 Swift Current, Saskatchewan
 March 18, 2010

Shuttle Buss transportation Service Announced

Today, the 2010 Ford World Women's Curling Championship announced a fan Shuttle Bus service will be provided free of charge during the Championship. Originating from the Credit union i-plex, the route has been designed to cover the Highway number one service roads, shopping malls, downtown business community and Fairview Arena.

Organizers wish to thank the City of Swift Current and Tim Hortons who have each provided a bus for this service. Without their generous support, the shuttle service would not be possible.

The shuttle service will allow local fans and visitors to the community alternate transportation to the Credit Union i-plex. The morning bus starts one hour before the draw. Bus service is provided until 1:00 a.m. each evening providing a safe ride home for fans that plan to enjoy the Keith's Patch.

The Bus shuttle hours are:

Saturday, March 20 th	10:30 AM	1:00 AM
Sunday, March 21 st to Thursday March 25 th	7:30 AM	1:00 AM
Friday, March 26 th ½ hour prior to first game as required or	10:30 AM	1:00 AM
Saturday, March 27 th	10:30 AM	1:00 AM
Sunday, March 28 th	9:00 AM	12:00 PM
